

Welcome to Full Belly Farm!

Full Belly Farm is a 300 acre organic farm nestled in the beautiful Capay Valley. The working farm offers an abundance of fresh produce and flowers to enjoy. We offer our venue to folks wanting to celebrate their love in a truly unique fashion. Walk the rows of produce that then are served at dinner, enjoy the flowers that are in season and see where love grows. The co-mingling between celebration and farming has never been so sweet.

The Venue

A beautiful farmhouse and certified kitchen that is surrounded by a large lawn, fruit trees and row crops offers up a variety of options to dine, dance and celebrate. The 35 year old walnut grove offers shade and history as the perfect spot for a ceremony.

The Food

Full Belly Kitchen offers up a menu that is always seasonal and displays the best that the farm has to offer. Cooked in a simple, delicious way that makes the fruit, vegetable or meat the star of the show. Amon and Jenna work with each couple to create a well balanced meal that each guest will rave about.

The Flowers

Our in-house florist provides flowers that are grown and arranged at Full Belly Farm. The arrangements are a seasonal showcase of what is blooming most prolifically and beautifully in the over 12 acres of flowers that the farm grows year round.
